PRIME-TIME SHUTTLE WORKERS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVE FIRST CONTRACT

LAX Shuttle Workers Secure Strong Agreement

(Orange, CA) – Workers at Prime-Time Shuttle in Los Angeles, California unanimously ratified a three-year agreement for their first Teamster contract on June 26, 2009. The workers voted 22-0 to have Teamsters Local 952 in Orange, California as their representative approximately five years ago.

The members at Prime-Time Shuttle work as guest service representatives and help board passengers onto the vans at Los Angeles International Airport.

"I'm proud to be able to represent a group of Teamsters that stuck together and showed great perseverance throughout this process," said Eric L. Henry, Business Representative of Teamsters Local Union 952. "Committee members David Purcell and Jeremy Browder continued to build strength and unity among the workers."

Browder and Purcell look forward to having the opportunity to having their new contract in place to help resolve issues at the workplace.

"We know that with the strength of the Teamsters behind us we will be able to continue to improve our working conditions in the coming years," said Browder.

"Customers of Super Shuttle or Prime-Time out of LAX can be confident in the service the Teamsters will provide. They will make sure you get your van ride," said Patrick D. Kelly, Secretary-Treasurer of Local 952.
